

The Little Leprechaun

By Staci Dodge

Lucky the Leprechaun went out today. Over the hills to play, play, play.

He slid down a rainbow so very fast. He saw a bunny hopping right past.

Under the rainbow he saw a black pot. It was filled up to the tippity top.

It was sparkling so much with shiny bright gold. He wasn't supposed to touch, he had been told.

Lucky wasn't very old. Even though he had just been told, just one piece he had to hold.

He took only one piece of gold, just for luck. Lucky was bored, Lucky was stuck. So he started thinking about a big yellow duck.

“That was neat!” Lucky said. “I see the same duck that I had wished for in my head.”
