Five Little Shamrocks Rhyme

Felt Board Directions: Print out shamrocks above onto heavy paper, color, and cut out and then attach a Velcro dot to the back of each shamrock and then place the shamrocks onto your felt board and use with rhyme below.

Magnetic Board Directions: Directions same as above, except instead of using Velcro dots you will use self-adhesive magnetic tape and place a piece of magnetic tape onto the backs of the shamrocks and place these onto your magnetic board and use with the rhyme below.

Five green shamrocks growing by my door.
Little bunny ate one so now there are four.

Four little shamrocks hiding behind a tree.
Little bunny ate one so now there are three.

Three little shamrocks playing peek-a-boo.
Little bunny ate one so now there are two.

Two little shamrocks sitting in the sun.
Little bunny ate one so now there is one.

One little shamrock laying in the sun.
Little bunny ate one so now there are none.

This is a fun flannel board rhyme. You will need the five shamrocks above and a felt board or a magnetic board. You will need a bunny puppet and have the bunny pretend to eat one shamrock after each line of the rhyme.

If you don't have a bunny puppet, use whatever puppet you have and change the word bunny to the name of the puppet you have, such as doggy, kitty, etc. If you don't have any puppets then you could say Tommy ate one, and have one of the children come up and pretend to eat one of the shamrocks, great fun!

Extend this activity: Provide each of the children with five shamrock puppets {see our free samples for March www.adaycare.com/sample.html}. Have the children put one shamrock down and count the shamrocks that are left after the bunny eats one.
